Internship Descriptions

Summer Internship:

The summer internship requires you to attend the All American National Junior Show and TBF Summer Leadership Camp. Transportation and Hotel/Dorm accommodations will be provided for both events with departure from Hungerford, Texas. One meal a day is provided and you will be required to stay in Hungerford prior to each event to assist with planning and preparation for the events.

Dates: May 1 (earliest available) through August (after the Bluebonnet Kick-Off Classic)

Responsibilities:

- Manage social media accounts with prompt, interactive posts.
- Create promotional flyers and graphics for various Brahman Foundation activities.
- Photograph activities at the All American National Junior Show and The Brahman Foundation Summer Leadership Camp.
- Update website with new information and timely blog posts.
- Collaborate to schedule activities throughout TBF's Summer Leadership Camp.
- Assist in the organization of TBF's Scholarship Awards Banquet.
- Serve as a camp chaperone.

Fall Internship:

The Fall internship primarily focuses on timely website development and preparation for our "funding the future" sale which takes place in December. You will also be required to manage TBF's social media pages and the blog. Depending on the circumstance, travel may be necessary. If this occurs, travel expenses will be covered. This is a part-time internship, and you are able to manage responsibilities remotely.

Dates: August (after Bluebonnet Kick-Off Classic) through March (after HLSR)

Responsibilities:

- Manage social media accounts with prompt, interactive posts
- Design promotional flyers and graphics for various Brahman Foundation activities
- Update website with new information and timely blog posts
- Contact donors in preparation for the "Funding the Future" Sale
- Create advertisements to promote our sale
- Photograph TBF activities
- Brainstorm innovative ideas to increase social media interaction
